

A. Describe what it is. How does it get on your computer? What does it do to your computer? 6pts

- All questions were answered and were easy to understand (4-3)
- A Solution was provide but more information was needs (2-1)
- Was not provided (0)

B. Provide and explain at least two real world examples. Show illustrations if available. Use articles or websites with examples. Summarize each on your presentation 10 pts

- Both articles were summarized with references and related well to the presentation (10-8)
- Both articles were summarized with references and however some things were not clear or more information was needed (7-5)
- There were problems with the articles, information was incomplete or not communicated, the articles may not be related to the topic (4-1)

C. Explain how it can be removed from your computer. 4pts

- Solutions were provide and were easy to understand (4-3)
- A Solution was provide but more information was needs (2-1)
- Was not provided (0)

D. Explain what steps can you take to protect your computer from it. 2 pts

- Steps were provide and were easy to understand (2)
- Steps were provide but more information was needed. (unclear) (1)
- Was not provided (0)

E. Presentation was organized, presenter could be heard easily, information was not read directly from slides 6 pts

- Presenter did an exceptional job at communicating and everything went smoothly (6-5)
- Most of the presentation went well with a few thing that could be improved upon (4-3)
- The presenter was unprepared and the presentation was not communicated effectively (2-1)