

Facts about energy from the article: “Matter and Energy? What is Energy?”

- Fossil fuels are like oil, natural gas and coal.
- Energy is another word for power.
- Electrical energy powers appliances in our homes.
- All energy is one of two types: potential or kinetic energy.
- Earth gets most of its energy from the sun.
- One way to make energy is to use wind.
- Energy from the sun is called solar energy
- Moving energy is called kinetic energy.
- Another way to make energy is to use the sun.
- Scientists want to discover new ways to create energy.
- Potential energy is stored energy.
- The sun’s energy makes plants grow.
- One form of energy can be turned into another.
- Devices called solar panels can save heat from the sun.