Little Bunny Foo Foo

Lit - tle Bun - ny Foo Foo, hop - ing through the for - est;

Scoop-in' up the field mice and bopp-in'em on the head.

Spoken: (I make my voice start high and go low on the word "dooooowwwnnn")

Down came the Good Fairy and she said:

(Sung to the tune above):

"Little Bunny Foo Foo, I don't want to see you, Scoopin' up the field mice and boppin' 'em on the head."

Spoken:

"I'll give you three chances, and if you don't behave I'll turn you into a goon!"

The next day.....

Little Bunny Foo Foo, hoppin' through the forest,
Scoopin' up the field mice and boppin' 'em on the head.

Spoken:

Down came the Good Fairy and she said:

(Sung to the tune above):

"Little Bunny Foo Foo, I don't want to see you, Scoopin' up the field mice and boppin' 'em on the head."

Spoken:

"I'll give you two more chances, and if you don't behave I'll turn you into a goon!"

The next day.....

Little Bunny Foo Foo, hoppin' through the forest,
Scoopin' up the field mice and boppin' 'em on the head.

you're a Goon. POOF!"

The moral of the story is:

HARE TODAY. GOON TOMORROW.

Pedagogical uses:

Vocal exploration: this is a fun song that lends itself to a nice descending vocal glissando on the word "down." You can use your "bunny" (a.k.a. your hand with two fingers up for the ears) to do some hopping vocal exploration as a warm up. Maybe even try different voices for the fairy. My kids love to make the fairy have a low voice or a high voice during the speaking parts, just to be silly.

Finger play: this is a sweet little finger play,

"Little Bunny Foo Foo hopping through the forest":
using your hand for the bunny, act like he's hopping along

"Scooping up the field mice": pretend to scoop up a mouse"

"And boppin' 'em on the head": use the hand that did not grab the pretend mouse to hit the top of your hand, as if you were boppin' the mouse"

"Down came the good fairy": arms up above head and "sparkle" down as low as you'd like.

"Little Bunny Foo Foo I don't want to see you":
point your finger, as if you're scolding Bunny Foo Foo.

"Scooping up the field mice": pretend to scoop up a mouse"

"And boppin' 'em on the head": use the hand that did not grab the pretend mouse to hit the top of your hand, as if you were boppin' the mouse"

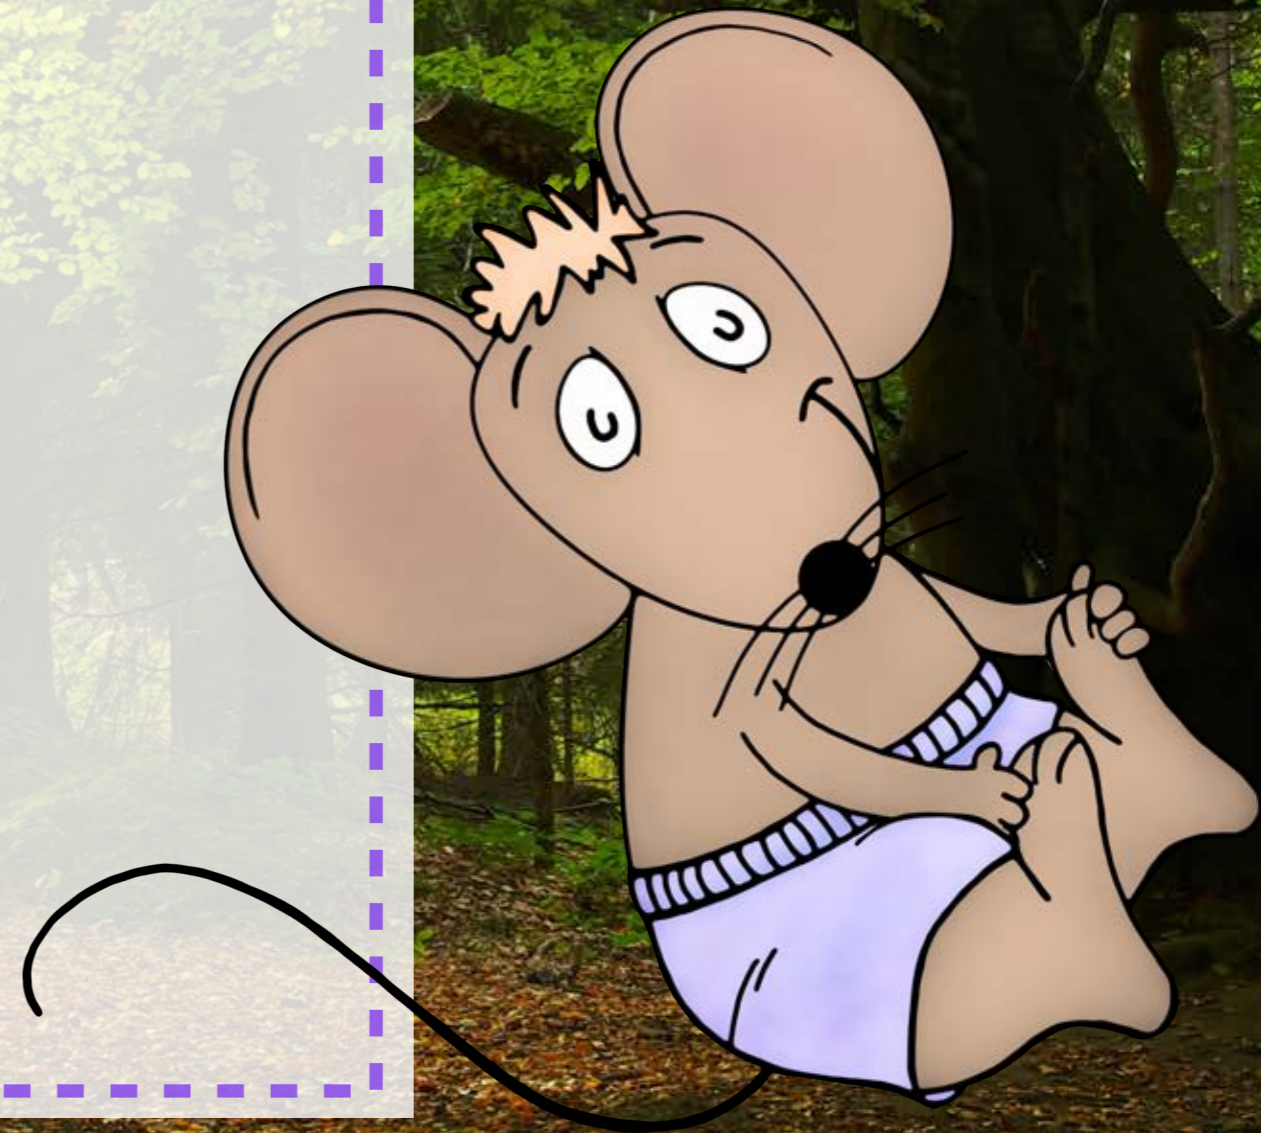

"I'll give you _____ chances" hold up the number of fingers

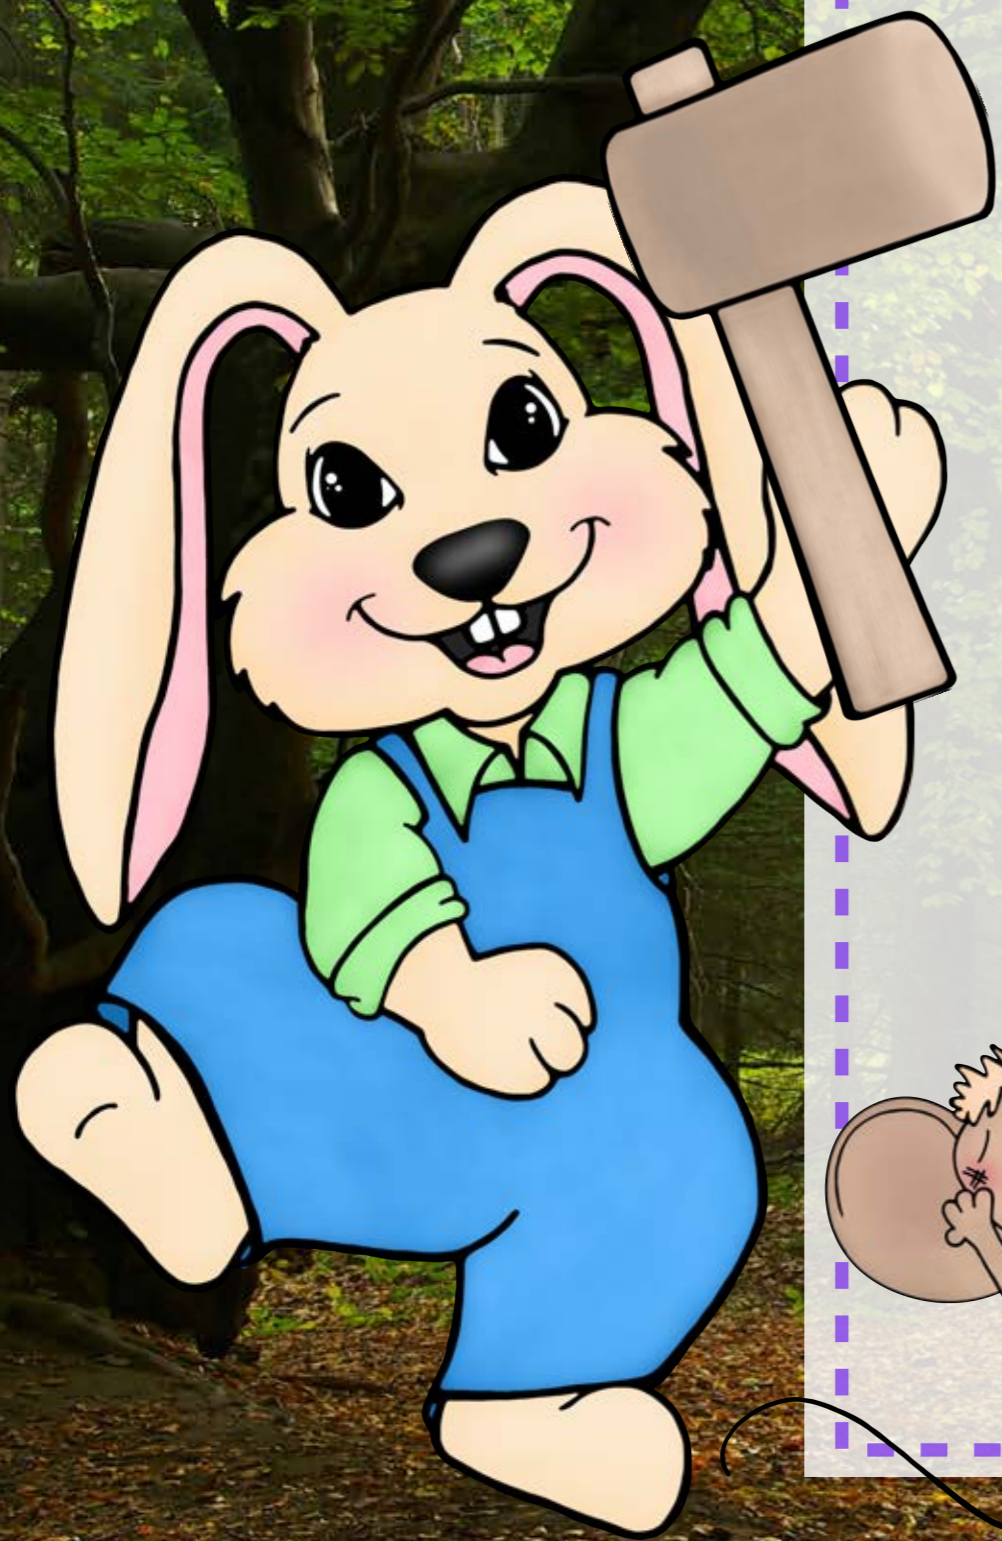

"Or I'll turn you into a goon": scold the bunny again.

Little Bunny

Hoppin'

I don't want to see you,

Scoopin' up the

And

I'll give you 2

And if

turn you
into a

turn you
into a goon!
