

Summer Learning Book Talk

The students will be expected to read 3-5 books over the course of the summer. They will then choose one of the books they read to present to the class. The following are the requirements for the book talk presentation. Students will be expected to give this presentation when they return to school in the fall. They will be required to use an 8 ½ x 11 to 9 x12 piece of paper. The front of the paper should be a visual. The back of the paper should include a summary of the book, the student's favorite passage, and their recommendation of the book to other students.
