One of the most inspiring athletes of the 2016 Olympic Games in Rio, Brazil was Yusra Mardini. Mardini grew up in Syria. She swam for this country in many swimming competitions. She was going to swim in the Olympics for Syria, but then she had to flee from her home country in 2015. Syria was in the middle of a war, and it became dangerous for people to live there. She was only seventeen years old at this time.

After Mardini and her sister left Syria, they needed to get to Greece. In order to do that, they had to cross the Aegean Sea by boat. This boat was only supposed to hold six people. However, twenty passengers were on the boat. The engine broke down in the middle of the Aegean Sea, but only three passengers knew how to swim. One of them was Mardini. The three swimmers wanted to keep everyone alive, and they knew what they needed to do. The three girls dragged the boat across the sea for hours. After swimming for more than three hours, they brought the boat to land.

Over the next year, Mardini trained in Berlin, Germany. In 2016, she swam in the Olympics. She was on the Refugee team. While she did not win a medal, she wants to compete in the 2020 Olympics in Tokyo. People around the world think that Yusra Mardini is a hero. When she is not training in the pool, she works as an ambassador for refugees.
