

read and roll

After reading fiction, roll the die to see which activity to complete for the book that you read.

Write a summary of the chapters or section you read today.

Write a book review for your story. Rate your story 1-10 and give details to support your rating.

Create a timeline to show the major events in your story. Be sure to include illustrations for your timeline.

Use a Venn Diagram to compare yourself to one of the main characters of the story.

Write a character interview. Come up with 5 questions you would ask the main character and then answer the questions as if you were the main character.

Write an acrostic poem about the book using the letters of the book title or a character's name.

read and roll

After reading non-fiction, roll the die to see which activity to complete for the book that you read.

Make a list of 5-10 facts that you learned from your book.

Find 5 non-fiction features such as maps, photographs, diagrams, labels, captions, tables, charts, or graphs and explain how these features help teach you about the topic.

Create a list of new words found in your book related to your topic and tell what each word means.

Write a summary of what you are learning in your book.

Create a web on your topic by writing your topic in the middle of the web. Then, write words, sentences, pictures, or ideas related to your topic around the web.

Write an acrostic poem about the book using the letters of the book title or topic.
