

Dear Parents,

This coming Tuesday April 24th the 5th graders will have their first opportunity at playing for you all. This concert will be our Spring concert which will be held at O.L. Smith Middle School starting at 6:30pm. Students should be up to the school between 6 and 6:15 and should be dressed in nice dress clothes. The next opportunity they will have to play for you will be May 7th at Edsel Ford High School. This concert will present the 5th grade instrumental students along with the Middle and High School instrumental students. This concert will also start at 6:30pm, with students arriving by 6pm. They should also be dressed in nice dress clothes. If you have any questions or concerns please feel free to email me at wolffa@dearbornschools.org. Thank you so much and I look forward to seeing you all there to support your wonderful young musicians.

Sincerely,

Mr. Andrew Wolff
