

5th Grade Spelling Week 24

Consonant altered sound

Explanation:

When suffixes are added to words, the sounds of certain consonants often change, or alternate, though their spellings may remain intact.

1. authenticity (authentic)
2. magician (magic)
3. electricity (electric)
4. publicity (public)
5. criticize (critique)
6. crumble (crumb)
7. designate (design)
8. muscular (muscle)
9. residential (resident)
10. columnist (column)
11. moisten (moist)
12. resignation (resign)
13. signature (sign)

14. soften (soft)
15. bombard (bomb)
16. condemnation (condemn)
17. musician (music)
18. socialize (social)
19. official (office)
20. signal (sign)

Science Content Words

21. investigation (investigate)
22. conclusion (conclude)
23. observation (observe)
24. scientific
25. analyze

investigation (investigate) - procedure that is carried out to gather information or data

conclusion (conclude) - decision based on information; to look at the results and figure it out

observation (observe) - look at or study something

Scientific - based on or characterized by the methods and principles of science.

analyze - a summary of the experiment's results

investigation (investigate) - procedure that is carried out to gather information or data

conclusion (conclude) - decision based on information; to look at the results and figure it out

observation (observe) - look at or study something

Scientific - based on or characterized by the methods and principles of science.

analyze - a summary of the experiment's results