

5th Grade Spelling Week 31
Greek root ann/enn

Explanation: The roots 'ann' and 'enn' mean "year."

- | | |
|------------------|-----------------|
| 1. annual | 13. annihilate |
| 2. anniversary | 14. annotate |
| 3. centennial | 15. sullenness |
| 4. millennium | 16. bannister |
| 5. perennial | 17. biennial |
| 6. annoy | 18. quadrennial |
| 7. announce | 19. triennial |
| 8. tennis | 20. annunciator |
| 9. kennel | 21. revolution |
| 10. bicentennial | 22. Patriot |
| 11. annex | 23. Loyalist |
| 12. antenna | 24. rebellion |
| | 25. liberty |

Revolution - opposition to one in authority or dominance

Patriot - Colonists who chose to fight for independence. A person who supported the colonists during the American Revolution

Loyalist - A person who supported the British during the American Revolution

Rebellion - opposition to one in authority or dominance

Liberty - freedom

Revolution - opposition to one in authority or dominance

Patriot - Colonists who chose to fight for independence. A person who supported the colonists during the American Revolution

Loyalist - A person who supported the British during the American Revolution

Rebellion - opposition to one in authority or dominance

Liberty - freedom