Bell Work for 03~21~19

What is Industry? How does it affect you?

Answer in complete sentences!

Industry:

The aggregate of manufacturing or technically productive enterprises in a particular field, often named after its principal product.

Examples: automobile industry; steel industry

Write a list of all the industries you can think of...

Have at least ten.

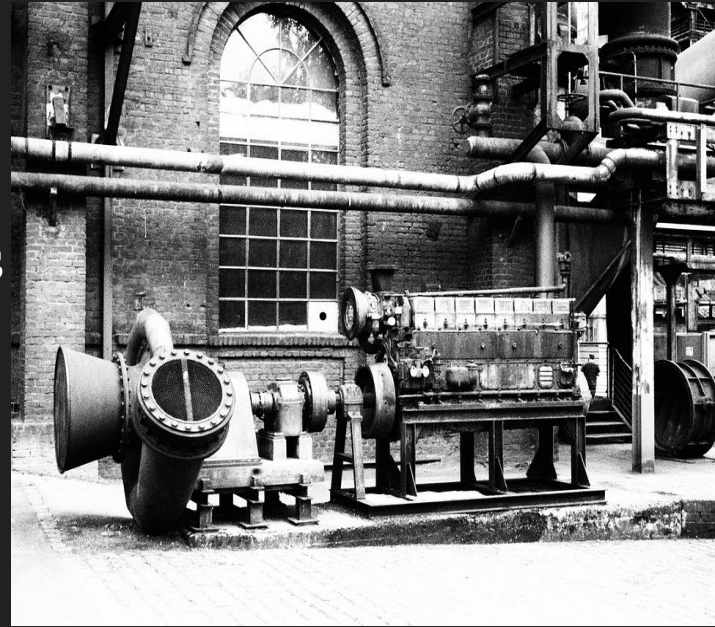

Let's Compare Lists...

- Whip around! Tallest person in the room starts!
- Draw a circle around any industry type that you also have as they are named.
- What are the six most popular?
- Divide into six groups & pick industries.

One group per table...

- Each group gets a piece of big paper and a different color pen.
- The person whose birthday is closest needs to fold the paper to make a Frayer Model.
- Fold it in half twice, then fold the inside corner.
- Write the name of your industry in the middle diamond.

Box One

The shortest person on the team is the first writer.

In the upper left hand box, make a T chart. Your headings are PROS and CONS.

As a group, decide on the Pros and Cons of your industry. Write them down using bullet points.

Box 2

Two of your team members need to play rock~paper~scissors. The winner decides which of them writes next.

Title the upper right box JOBS, and work together to write a list of all the jobs you can think of related to your industry. Really stretch on this one!

Box 3

- The person with the most siblings writes next.
- Write a T chart in the bottom left box and title it BEFORE and WITHOUT.
- Brainstorm to come up with as many ideas as you can about what we did BEFORE this industry, and what we would do if zombies or aliens came and it all went away. Use bullet points.

Box 4

- If you haven't written yet, it is your turn! If there are more than one of you left, flip a coin, winner decides which of you writes.
- Label the last box FUTURE. Now brainstorm to come up with ideas as to what is next for your industry, what does the future hold?

Move Clockwise!

- Read the new poster.
- Add to the new poster using your pen.
- Make sure you only add new things!

Exit Ticket!

- On the back each of you write:
- What you learned from this activity
- What surprised you?
- Sign your name to your comments!
