

Tuesday, September 4th

WELCOME BACK-My voice has been coming and going over the weekend. Therefore, I will need you to listen very carefully today and follow all of my directions, the first time they are given.

Please start by doing the Tuesday Warm-up (ONLY TUESDAY), followed immediately by 10 minutes of SSR. Remember that SSR time should be SILENT, not just quiet. If you did not bring your SSR book with you, see me immediately.

Once SSR time is completed, please pull out your composition book. We will try to set them up today. Supplies were to be acquired by today. If you do not have a composition book, you really need to get one. They are still selling them at many stores, for .50, or I am selling some for $1.00. See me if you want to buy one; they are first come first served. If you cannot complete this in class because you have no book, you will be required to complete it for homework tonight.

Composition Book Directions:

Use a pen or sharpie to write your name on the front cover.....write both first and last name. Please include your hour, as well.

In the upper corner (outside edge) of each inside page, write a page number (on both sides), 1-50.

On page 1, write the title, BOOK TIMELINE. You are required to read a minimum of 8 books this school year. If you feel you will read the minimum only, turn to page 11. If you feel you will read more, think of the possible number of books, multiply that number by 4, then, add 2, and go to that page.

For example, if you think you will read 5 per cm x 4 cm, your number will be 20, add 2, and go to page 22.

On the new page, write the title, Metacognitive/Reading Chart and draw the graph according to the example given.

Metacognitive/Reading Chart

Book Title	Author	Total Pages in book	Date:	Page I started on today	Page I finished on today	Minutes I was actively engaged in reading
