

RL 1.3: Describe the Characters, Setting, and
Major Events using Key
Details

This character can be described as:

Toad felt down in the dumps. He didn't like winter. He didn't like snow. He didn't like anything today.

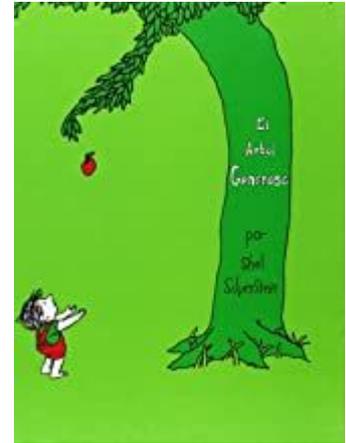

- A. a scared, nervous frog
- B. a sad, unhappy toad
- C. a happy, cheerful, and excited toad.

This character can be described as:

The tree was giving because she loved the boy so much. She would give the boy anything he asked for, even her branches.

- A. a selfish, unhappy, and greedy tree
- B. a generous and loving tree
- C. a sad and angry tree

This character can be described as:

The third little pig was the smartest pig. He spent a lot of time planning and thinking before he built his house. He worked very hard, day after day.

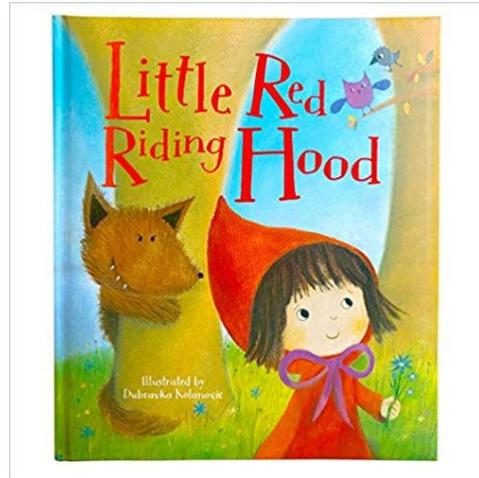

- A. a smart, hard-working pig
- B. a lazy, bored pig
- C. a sly, sneaky pig

This character can be described as:

The sly wolf sneaked to Little Red Riding Hood's Grandmother's house and hungrily waited for her to arrive.

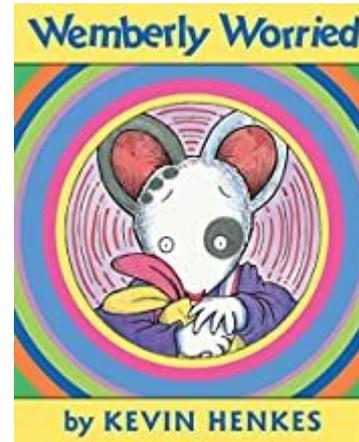

- A. sly, hungry, and clever
- B. jolly, excited and kind
- C. brave, generous, and smart

1. This character can be described as:

Wemberly worried about the first day of school.
She worried about what she would eat for breakfast.
She worried about everything all day long.

- A. selfish and rude
- B. happy and excited
- C. nervous and anxious

This character can be described as:

The shy little striped kitten just stood off by herself behind the tree, wishing she could play with the others. She felt alone and afraid.

- A. a shy, lonely, and scared kitten with stripes.
- B. a brave, popular, happy kitten with orange s
- C. a smart, courageous kitten who loved to climb trees

This character can be described as:

The little red hen worked all day while her lazy friends just watched her, but when it was time to eat the bread, she generously offered them some.

- A. lazy, selfish, and greedy
- B. busy, hardworking, and forgiving
- C. funny, entertaining, and charming

