

Describe the Story Setting

This setting can be described as:

Little Red Riding Hood lived in a small cottage in the deep dark woods. Her grandmother lived a mile away.

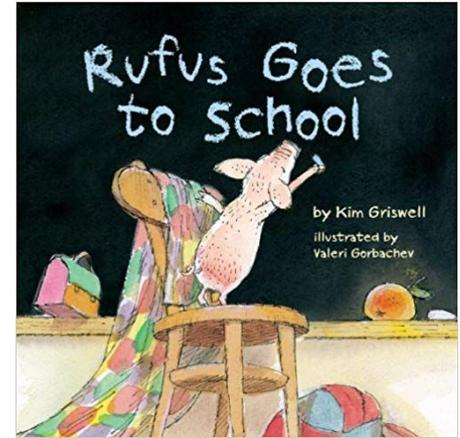

- A. A large city with lots of buildings and parks.
- B. A large forest with lots of trees and animals.
- C. A small apartment building with many pets.

This setting can be described as:

More than anything, Rufus wanted to sit at his very own desk, write on the chalkboard, and learn to read. He was so excited to finally have a teacher and classmates.

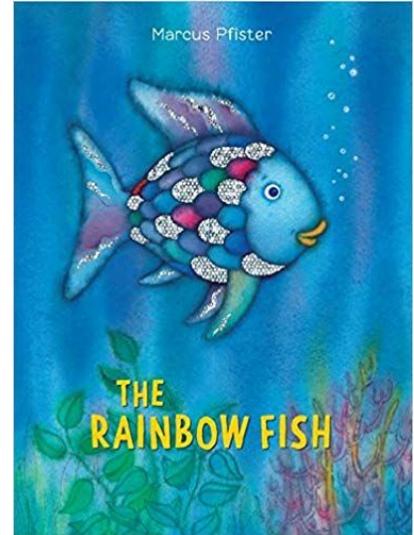

- A. a school
- B. a farm
- C. a park

This setting can be described as:

Far out in the deep, blue sea lived a beautiful fish. He had shiny, colorful scales and all of the other fish were amazed with his beauty.

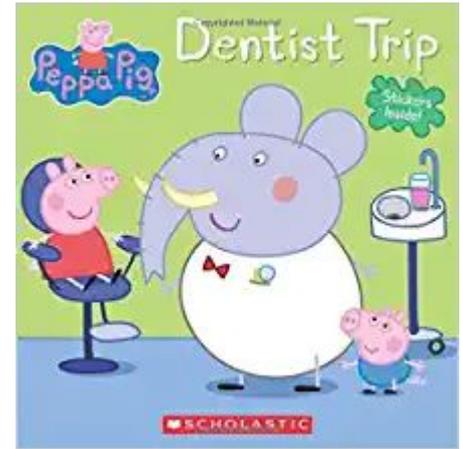

- A. a playground
- B. a forest
- C. an ocean

This setting can be described as:

Peppa sat in the big, comfortable chair as the hygienist scraped, brushed, and flossed her teeth. She rinsed her mouth with a minty drink and spit into a small sink

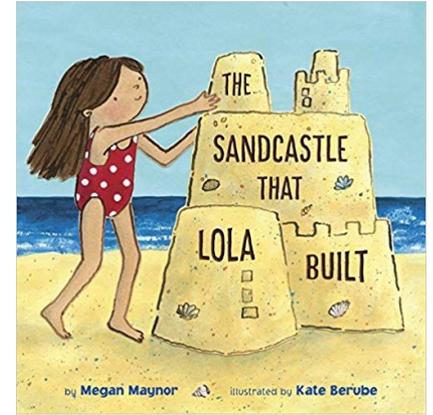

- a. a doctor's office
- b. a restaurant
- c. a dentist office

This setting can be described as:

Lola spent hours in the sun building the sandcastle of her dreams. She could hear children splashing in the waves behind her, but she stayed focused on her castle.

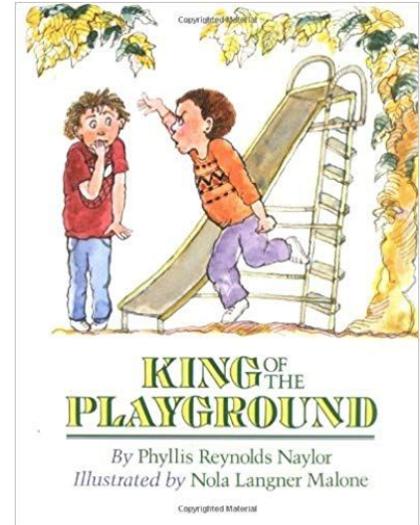

- A. a beach
- B. a school
- C. a forest

This setting can be described as:

Whether Kevin is swinging, sliding down the slide, climbing the fort, or hanging from the monkey bars, Sammy always finds him.

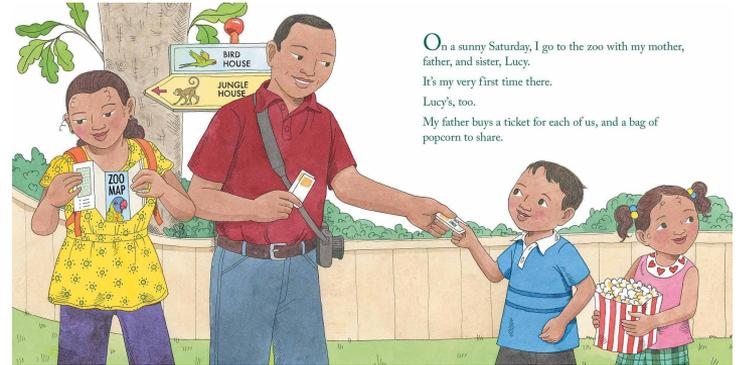

- A. a classroom
- B. a park
- C. a museum

This setting can be described as:

We stood in a long line to buy tickets and it was starting to rain. I wanted to see the tigers first, but my dad insisted that we start with the gorillas. The reptile house was closed, so I wouldn't get to see the snakes today.

- A. a snowy day at the mall
- B. a sunny day at the park
- C. a rainy day at the zoo

On a sunny Saturday, I go to the zoo with my mother, father, and sister, Lucy. It's my very first time there. Lucy's, too. My father buys a ticket for each of us, and a bag of popcorn to share.