

Question 2

Read the passage again and draw a line where the topic changes. Ask yourself what the focus is before the line, and what it shifts to after the line.

2. How does the author organize the information provided in the text?
- A The first part describes Egypt's hills and the second part describes the river valley.
 - B The first half describes Egypt's monotony and the second half describes its beauty.
 - C The first half describes Egypt's geography and the second half describes its history.
 - D The first part describes Egypt in the morning and the second part describes it in the evening.