

"Young Lives on Hold"

QUESTION #8 How does DACA help young undocumented immigrants?

DACA helps undocumented immigrants in many ways. In the text it states, "The rule allowed them to stay in the U.S. for at least two years." (Olson, 6) In those two years, a young person could grow and learn many new things and meet many new contacts in America. The text also states, "And it gave them permits to work here." (Olson, 6) The undocumented immigrant could earn great money working at a factory or in a bank. The Deferred Action for Childhood Arrivals (DACA) rule definitely helps young undocumented immigrants.
