

2. This question has two parts. Answer Part A first. Then answer Part B.

Part A Why do the gods hide their laughter as Thor and Loki depart for the land of the Frost Giants?

- A They played a trick on Thor.
- B They do not want to hurt Thor's feelings.
- C They think Thor will refuse to go.
- D They are afraid of Thor's wrath.

Part B Which sentence from the passage supports the answer to Part A?

- A People throughout the land feared eruptions of Thor's temper.
- B The gods of Asgard agreed and pondered just what Thor should do to get his hammer back.
- C But after much discussion, he realized there was no other way to retrieve his hammer.
- D Loki dressed Thor in Freya's velvet robes and draped Thor's enormous wrists with gems.

continued