

6. How does the narrator's point of view influence this story?
- A The narrator makes the reader feel afraid of Thor.
  - B The narrator seems to suggest that people who believe in myths are foolish.
  - C The narrator makes Thor seem heroic by favoring him over the other gods.
  - D The narrator presents the tale as if the gods and goddesses are real.
7. Choose four sentences that should be included in a summary of this passage and number them in the correct order.
- Many tales from the northern countries tell about Freya, goddess of beauty and love.
  - Thor wears bracelets and gems on his wrists.
  - Loki convinces Thrym that Thor is his bride-to-be, and the hammer is returned.
  - Thor's chariot carries Thor and Loki back to Asgard.
  - The Frost Giant king steals Thor's hammer.
  - Thor's hammer is named Mjölnir.
  - Thrym agrees to return the hammer in exchange for Freya's hand in marriage.
  - The gods persuade Thor to travel to the land of the Frost Giants disguised as Freya.