

"Kindly Move over a Little Gentlemen"

Questions:

- 1.) Who are the four characters in the political cartoon intended to represent?
- 2.) Why do you think the central figure in the political cartoon is asking the two men to "Kindly move over a little gentlemen"?
- 3.) What is your opinion of the decision to prioritize health, education and welfare over issues like military establishments and arms cost? Do you agree with President Johnson's decision or do you feel military funding should take top priority over all other budgetary issues?

Questions:

- 1.) What can we infer the artist was trying to say about LBJ's focus as President?
- 2.) Why do you think the woman representing the "Vietnam War" is drawn as a curvy full figured glamorous woman while the woman representing "U.S. Urban Needs" is drawn as a frail woman in tattered clothes?
- 3.) Do you agree with President Johnson that the need to fight communism through the Vietnam War should be a priority over domestic issues or are you a person who believes that it is the President's job to prioritize the needs of the American people he is sworn to protect? *Please explain why you came to this conclusion