

Use the map to complete this section. Write the letter of the best answer.

- Which cities did the United States target in massive bombing attacks in December 1972?
 - Hanoi and Haiphong
 - Dien Bien Phu and Hanoi
 - My Lai and Ben Tre
 - Vinh and Quang Tri
- Which country lies north and east of Vinh?
 - Cambodia
 - China
 - Laos
 - Thailand
- Approximately how many miles would troops have to travel from Hanoi to Saigon using the Ho Chi Minh Trail?
 - 250
 - 450
 - 650
 - 850
- Which statement accurately describes the Ho Chi Minh Trail?
 - It was used mainly to move South Vietnamese troops north.
 - It connected key cities and ports within South Vietnam.
 - Most of it was located outside the borders of Vietnam.
 - It connected the capital of North Vietnam to points south.
- Locate Ben Tre on the map. Why might the United States have conducted a "search-and-destroy mission" at this location?
 - There may have been Vietminh and Vietcong in Ben Tre.
 - Ben Tre was a key supply center along the Ho Chi Minh Trail.
 - The North Vietnamese fired at the U.S.S. Maddox from Ben Tre.
 - The South Vietnamese had placed many mines in the harbor near Ben Tre.

6. Which event listed on the map do you think is the most important? Why?