

Pie Graph—Multiple Choice

Directions: This pie graph represents the results of a 1967 poll of Americans' opinions about the war in Vietnam. Use the information in the graph and your knowledge of U.S. history to answer the questions.

American Attitudes to the Vietnam War, October 1967

1. In October 1967, the portion of the population who wanted to withdraw U.S. troops was
 - A about a tenth.
 - B about a quarter.
 - C about one third.
 - D about one half.
2. The total portion of those who favored staying in Vietnam was
 - A about one tenth.
 - B about one third.
 - C about one half.
 - D about two thirds.
3. The percent of people who could be identified as doves was
 - A 6%.
 - B 10%.
 - C 31%.
 - D 53%.
4. In October 1967, the majority of Americans wanted to
 - A fight harder against the Communists.
 - B keep fighting just the way they had been.
 - C pull out of Vietnam.
 - D use nuclear weapons.
5. Which opinion do you agree with? Why?