

Directions: Use the information on the poster and your knowledge of U.S. history to answer the questions.

National Archives and Records Administration

1. What does this poster tell you about the woman depicted?

- A She misses someone.
- B She is married.
- C She is reading a letter from her husband in the military.
- D All of the above

2. What does this poster say about women during World War II?

- A By 1944 the government had all the women workers it needed.
- B Only women with experience working in factories were needed.
- C The government wanted all women to consider doing war-related work.
- D Married women were not allowed to work outside the home.

3. What is the primary message of this poster?

- A Women workers are needed to help end the war and bring the soldiers home.
- B There is nothing women can do to actively support the war effort.
- C Women pen pals are needed for lonely soldiers.
- D Don't worry about your husband overseas.

4. This poster's targeted audience is

- A women with jobs who should consider a career in the army.
- B employment recruiters.
- C women with good handwriting.
- D married women who may never have worked before.

5. Do you think it was fair to ask women to help with the war effort during WWII?

-Provide at least two pieces of evidence to support your position.