

#5 - Kannemeyeriid
Labyrinthodont
Lystrosaurus
Cynognathus
Thecodont

All of these Fossils & how the Fossilized remains exist on Various Continents

Claim:

Yes - The Fossils of Kannemeyeriid, Labyrinthodont, Lystrosaurus, Cynognathus, and Thecodont are unlikely to be discovered all over the world.

Evidence -

Describe Why -

- Look at dinosaur Body Structure
- Think about the Climate - Weather
- Consider how this Dinosaur could travel such great distances

NO - use Theory of Continental Drift, Pangaea, Alfred Wegener.

Evidence - Fossils Found / discovered on the continents.