

reading response sentence starters

choose one of the following ways to respond to the book, chapter, or pages you read today.

1. Good readers ask questions when they read:

Why...

I wonder...

What if...

I'm confused about...

2. Good readers make connections as they read:

This reminds me of...

This is like...

This is similar to...

I understand this part of the story because...

This character is like me because...

I remember a time...

3. Good readers visualize as they read:

I can picture...

I can see...

I can hear...

I can taste...

I can smell...

4. Good readers make predictions as they read:

I think

I predict...

Based on the clues in this chapter, I think...

I can use my background knowledge to predict...

Good readers revise their predictions as they read:

Now I think...

I changed my prediction because...

5. Good readers summarize as they read:

In the beginning...In the middle...In the end...

First, next, then, after that, in the end...

In this chapter...then...at the conclusion of the chapter...

6. Good readers infer as they read:

I infer...

I think the author is telling me...

I am using my background knowledge to infer that...