Geography Study Guide

Northeast   Lake Erie   grasslands   corn belt   similar terrain

1. ___Corn Belt___ is an identified region based on economic activity.

2. Michigan is known for what feature? ___Great lakes___ lake Erie

3. ___Grasslands___ is the natural environment of the Great Plains.

4. Landforms are a way to divide the United States into regions by ___Similar terrain___

5. The ___Northeast___ is a port of entry for people and materials.

6. Starting at Michigan, which direction would you travel to get to:
   a. Florida   South
   b. Rocky Mountains West
   c. Alaska Northwest
   d. Washington D.C. Southeast
   e. Mississippi river South

7. What are the questions geographers ask?
Where is it?
What is it like there?
How do people connect to another place?
How do people use the environment?

8. Lights on a satellite map represent?
large cities

9. Most people in the United States live near ___large bodies of water___ .

10. If you are looking at a map that is focused on physical land features- what would you notice and why? Be Specific.