

As you watch the video, fill-in the missing information for each statement.

1. China was _____, meaning, it didn't need outside help in satisfying their basic needs.
2. The habit forming narcotic made from the poppy plant is _____.
3. By 1835 CE, there were _____ million Chinese opium addicts.
4. The British refusal to end the opium trade in China led to the _____ War of _____.

5. When the British won the war, they gained _____ in China, which meant that foreigners were not subject to local law at Chinese ports.
6. In 1850 CE, the population of China was _____ million people.
7. Perhaps 20 million Chinese lost their lives in the _____ Rebellion.
8. An area in which an outside power claims exclusive investment or trading privileges is known as a _____ of _____.
9. In 1899 CE, the U.S. declared the _____ - _____ Policy with China.
10. The Society of Righteous and Harmonious Fists were also known as "The _____," and they started the _____ Rebellion.
11. In 1908 CE, the Qing government announced they would establish a full constitutional government by the year _____.