Italy Is Neutral, France Aids Poles

London, Sept. 1—(AP)—(Passed through Britishish censorship)—Prime Minister Chamberlain declared tonight that unless Germany would suspend aggressive action and withdraw her forces from Poland, Britain would unhesitatingly fulfill her obligations to Poland.

Chamberlain made the statement at an extraordinary session of parliament.

If the reply to the last British warning is not

Blitzkrieg = “Lightning War”

WAR DECLARED ON GERMANY

Mr. Neville Chamberlain

How the Premier
Told the Empire

Mr. Chamberlain's speech was a historic one. It was the first time that the Premier had spoken to the House of Commons since the outbreak of the war. The speech was a masterpiece of statesmanship, and it was a great success. The Premier's speech was a masterpiece of statesmanship, and it was a great success.
