

As you watch the video, fill-in the missing information for each statement.

1. In 1368 CE, the Mongols were overthrown, and the _____ Dynasty began.
2. The first Ming Emperor was _____.
3. Yonglo moved the capital to Beijing and built a palace complex called the _____ City.
4. The payment of one country to another to acknowledge submission is called _____.
5. The leader of seven Chinese exploratory voyages in the early 1400s was Admiral _____.
6. Emperor Yonglo died in the year _____ CE.
7. Portuguese ships reached China for the first time in the year _____ CE.
8. Due to Confucian influence, the Chinese had negative beliefs against _____.
9. China's economic policies favored _____.
10. The Great Wall constructed by the Ming was stronger because they used _____.
11. Manchuria, to the north, invaded China in the year _____ CE.
12. The Manchu, from Manchuria, took the name _____ Dynasty.
13. Circle: Under the Qing, (SONS / DAUGHTERS) were favored over (SONS / DAUGHTERS).
14. The ritual of kneeling in front of the emperor and touching one's head to the ground nine times is called _____.
15. By 1800 CE, 80% of Chinese exports to Europe was _____.
16. The Chinese refused Britain's request for greater trade in the year _____.

