U.S.S. Maine

DESTRUCTION OF THE WAR SHIP MAINE WAS THE WORK OF AN ENEMY

NAVAL OFFICERS THINK THE MAINE WAS DESTROYED BY A SPANISH MINE.
 George Kester Brown, the Journal's special correspondent at Havana, cables that it is the secret opinion of many Spaniards in the Cuban capital that the Maine was destroyed and 260 of her men killed by action of a submarine mine or land torpedo, laid by the Spanish Government. The cable continues: "It is believed, however, that the Spaniards are not so much concerned with the truth as they are with the appearance of the matter, and it is thought the explanation was chosen for sending an electric cannon through the mine. It thus can be proven, the literal report of the Spaniards will be shown by the fact that they refused to spring the mine until after all the men had returned for the night. The Spaniards claim in the picture shown before the men were hurt here, that

“Remember The Maine” will be our war cry.

Words by HATTIE NEVADA.

To be sung to the air of COLUMBIA GEM OF THE OCEAN.

The call for troops is loudly ringing,
Is ringing thro' the land from sea to sea,
The sons of liberty are rising,
We'll set poor Cuba free,
We're leaving home and wives and children,
Our parents fond and sweethearts dear,
But cheerfully for country's honor,
Goes America's Volunteers.

CHORUS.

Remember the Maine will be our war cry,
And the sailor lads who sleep so far away,
Unfurl old glory to the breeze boys,
We'll avenge their death to day.

Uncle Sam we will rally around you,
And shoulder to shoulder we will stand,
The North and the South come as brothers,
No foe on our free soil shall land,
The cannons may boom all around us,
But for justice and liberty we'll cheer,
And the God of the battle will aid us,
America's brave Volunteers.
