

Kirby, "Coming Out Of the Smoke" (New York World). Reproduced from The Literary Digest (10 October 1919).

Morris, "Curses, It Won't Explode In America" (George Matthew Adams Service). Reproduced from The Literary Digest (18 October 1919), p.13.

1. What is the cartoonist trying to say about American steel workers?

2. How do you think the cartoonist feels about the industrial Revolution's effect on America?

Greene, "Step by Step" (New York Evening Telegram). Reproduced from The Literary Digest (1 November 1919), p.12.

3. What is the cartoonist trying to say about labor union strikes?

Orr, "Close the Gate" (Chicago Tribune). Reproduced from The Literary Digest (5 July 1919), p. 29.

4. What is the cartoonist calling for?