Learning Labs

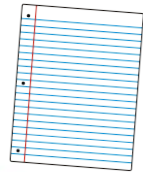

Learning Labs are a time for the teacher to provide additional small group or one-on-one instruction or help to students. This is also when students who receive special accommodations/services will be seen. Learning labs will be virtual until the week of September 21.

Attendance / Zoom

Attendance will be taken at the beginning of all scheduled live instruction on Zoom. It is important that parents make sure their student is available for periods of live instruction and that they log in on time.

Parents will need to download Zoom to the device thier student will use for school. If you need instructions on how to download zoom please click on the linked document.

School Supplies

Students will need the following materials for online instruction:

Pencils & Notebook Paper

Headphones or Earbuds (nice to have but not required)

A safe space to store workbooks and school materials. If your student does not have a desk at home I suggest a book storage bin or magazine holder. These can be found for a few dollars at Target and the dollar store.
