

Chapter 1 Study Guide- Due Friday

Write the definitions and answer the questions on a separate sheet of paper. Use your textbook and basic geography notes to find the answers.

Know the definition of the following terms. See glossary.

Map projections, absolute location, relative location, distortion, map grid, legend/key, cardinal directions latitude, longitude, coordinates, hemisphere, rotation, revolution, and temperate zones, scale, compass rose, title,

Complete
in-class

Know the exact locations of the prime meridian, equator Tropic of cancer, Tropic of Capricorn, Arctic Circle, Antarctic Circle, polar zones, tropic zones, polar zones, temperate zones. p.

I suggest that you that you draw a smaller version world map on page 17 and label the parallels.

Know the Goode's Homolosine Projection p.23.

1. What parts does the Goode's map distort? P.23
2. What parts does the Goode's map show more accurately? p. 22
3. The relative location tells you _____ p. 12
4. The direction that the meridians of longitude run _____ p.16
5. Geographers use _____ to indicate the absolute location of a place. P. 15
6. The two continents that are located entirely in the Western Hemisphere. p.17
7. The Earth is tilted at an angle of _____ relative to the sun. This causes the _____ p. 20.
8. Summer begins on _____ in the Northern hemisphere. P. 21