

Movement – How people, ideas/information, and goods get around. Ex: immigration, internet, planes

Region – what areas have in common; It could be cultural or physical. Example Great Lakes Region, The Westerner World, Oil producing region

H E – Human Environmental interaction – how we affect the environment and how the environment affects us. We MODIFY, ADAPT, DEPEND on the environment. Ex: fossil fuels, growing crops, air pollution

Location – Tells you where a place is. Two types of location absolute and relative. Give examples of each.

Place - What a place is like; its physical characteristics and human characteristics.

For each theme- write the definition, include a colorful illustration, and two more examples of that theme.

Flipbooks must be accurate, neat, and colorful.