

March is Reading Month 2020

Color Your Future With Reading!

Monday	Tuesday	Wednesday	Thursday	Friday
2 Dr. Seuss and the Habits week! Pay it forward. Make lists of how to pay it forward, to be displayed in hallways or lunchroom. Dr. Seuss' birthday!	3 Oh, the Places You'll Go! Practice beginning with the end in mind by wearing a shirt from your favorite college.	4 Look Whoooo's Reading? Put first things first and get caught reading during downtime.	5 Horton Hears a Who. Sharpen the saw by reading and discussing inspiring quotes. May make a poster to decorate the hallways.	6 Fox in Sox. Sharpen the saw with laughter by wearing crazy socks!
9 Make a colorful bookmark to use while you read.	10 Decorate your locker with a drawing of your favorite book cover.	11 Joke swap. Bring in a favorite joke to share with a friend.	12 Snuggle into bed 15 minutes early and read.	13 Wear a shirt with words on it.
16 Go on a reading adventure, make a map.	17 St. Patrick's Day. Write a limerick and share it with a friend. Wear green!	18 Digital disconnect day. Turn off the tv and computer and read.	19 Cuddle up with a good book. Bring a stuffed animal or blanket to enjoy while reading.	20 Go on a word search! Make a word search and trade it with your friend.
23 Read to your pet or a stuffed animal.	24 Hats off to reading! Wear a hat with words on it.	25 Wacky Wednesday. Read a joke or riddle book.	26 Flashlight reading. Read a book by flashlight.	27 Wear blue, or your blue Lindbergh shirt, for our blue ribbon school.
30 Read an important fact to your family.	31 National Crayon Day! Use crayons to illustrate your favorite book cover and write why you like the book.			