

March is Reading Month 2015

SUNDAY	MONDAY	TUESDAY	WEDNESDAY	THURSDAY	FRIDAY	SATURDAY
1 Dr. Seuss Week! Read his books all week.	2 Happy 111 th birthday, Dr. Seuss! Decorate a bookmark!	3 Book Fair! Write a story titled, Oh the Places I'll Go .	4 Book Fair! Partner up with another class to do Read to Someone during stamina.	5 Write your own tongue twister inspired by Dr. Seuss' Fox in Socks .	6 Bring in your favorite book and DEAR (Drop Everything And Read) for 30 minutes	7
8 Adjective, adjective, noun in Art class this week	9 Pick your literary genre for door decorating next week.	10 Volunteer to be a Video Reader. Sign up outside Ms. Harrington's class (rm 107).	11 Poetry Day! Read or write a poem.	12 DEAR-20 minutes	13 Come to school dressed up like your favorite storybook character.	14
15	16 Read your favorite fairy tale today.	17 Wear green for St. Patrick's Day! Write a creative leprechaun story.	18 Read the Building Scavenger Hunt!	19 DEAR-20 minutes	20 First day of Spring! Read a book about Spring. Door Decorating Day! (based on chosen literary genre)	21
22 Music and stories this week in Music class.	23 Read a fable. What is the moral?	24 Write a review for your favorite book. Share it with a friend.	25 Word Game Day (Scrabble, Boggle, Crossword Puzzles, etc)	26 DEAR-20 minutes	27 Camp Out and Read Under the Stars in the gym! Bring your favorite books, sleeping bag, and flashlight.	28
29	30 Write your own knock, knock joke. Share it with your class.	31 Guest Reader Classroom Winners announced!

Teachers: The activities on this calendar are suggestions of things you and your students can do to celebrate March is Reading Month in school. You may choose to follow them as they fit into your schedule. Let your students know about the activities you plan to participate in. Post important information to your blog to let parents know too!