

Common and Proper Nouns

Common Nouns

Common nouns are people, places, and things.

Here are some examples of common nouns:

- school
- girl
- boy
- uncle
- glue

Proper Nouns

Proper nouns name specific people, places, or things.

Here are some examples of proper nouns:

- Target
- Dearborn, Michigan
- Miller School
- Angela
- John
- Oreos

Let's practice!

I will understand the difference between proper and common nouns by choosing the correct answer.

McDonald's

- A. proper noun
- B. common noun

restaurant

A. proper noun

B. common noun

dog

A. proper noun

B. common noun

Scooby-Doo

A. proper noun

B. common noun

candy

A. proper noun

B. common noun

Skittles

A. proper noun

B. common noun

Barack Obama

A. proper noun

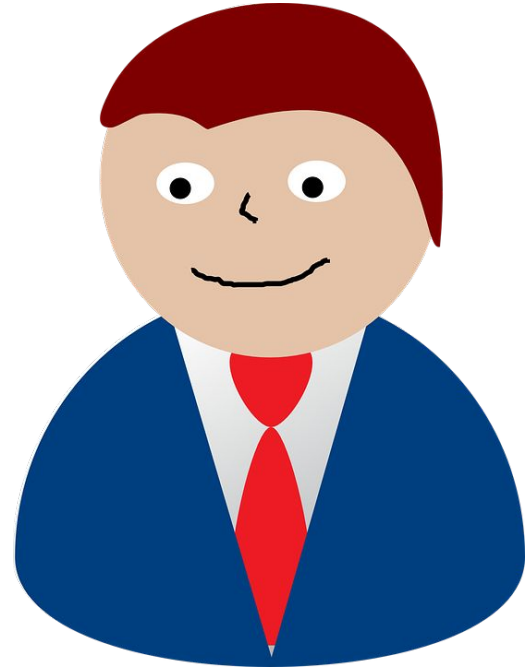

B. common noun

man

A. proper noun

B. common noun

store

A. proper noun

B. common noun

Kroger

A. proper noun

B. common noun

book

- A. proper noun
- B. common noun

The Very Hungry Caterpillar

- A. proper noun
- B. common noun

