

Flip the Sound

Here are the vowels:

a, e, i, o, and u

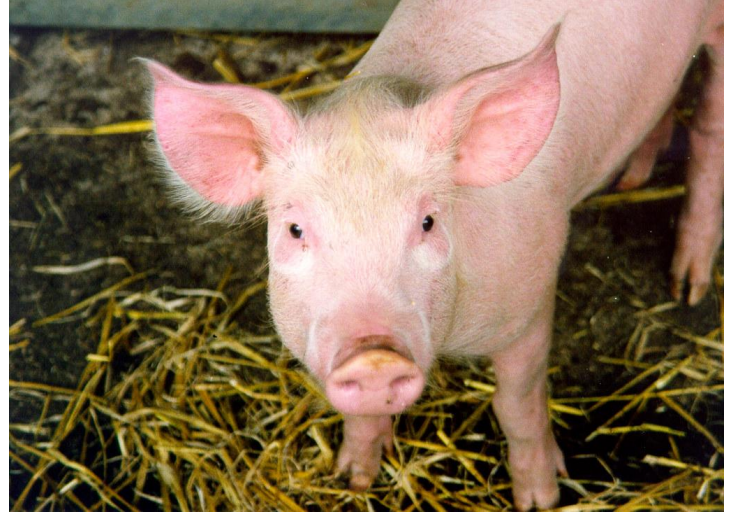

When we come to a word that we don't know in reading, we can try the vowel sound both ways. This is called flipping the sound. Let's try it!

Read the sentences. When you come to the word with the red letter, try that vowel both ways. Flip the sound! Which way sounds right?

The apple is red.

The pig is in
the hay.

This car is very fast.

This dog really
wants a bone.

We all went on a hayride.

This bear is looking for her cub.

We went fishing
in the lake.

The bridge went over the pond.

I hope that's not
a shark fin!

I love to listen
to music.
