

Answer Questions: Thanks,
Snakes

1. What is the author trying to tell us?

- A. Snakes are harmful.
- B. Snakes are scary.
- C. Snakes can be helpful.

2. How are some snakes helpful to sick people?

- A. They make wonderful pets.
- B. They are shy.
- C. Their venom can be used to make medicine.

3. According to the text, what should you do if you see a snake?

- A. Call 9-1-1
- B. Give it space and leave it alone.
- C. Trap it and call an adult.

4. Why are rodents a problem for farmers?

- A. Because they eat crops like corn and wheat.
- B. Because they eat snakes.
- C. Because they make too much noise.

5. What might a snake do if it's scared?

- A. cry
- B. bite
- C. run

6. Which is an example of snakes being helpful?

- A. Some people kill snakes because they don't like them.
- B. Some snakes are poisonous.
- C. Some snakes eat insects that are harmful to plants.

