

Source 2 - News Article

In an article written by Dr. Sanjay Gupta, he states, "That you are 100 times more likely to be struck by lightning than to have a serious allergic reaction to the vaccine that protects you against measles..." (Gupta 1). Dr. Gupta is explaining how unlikely it is to have any of the side effects associated w/vaccines. There is such a small chance of a reaction that it is not worth taking the chance of not vaccinating your child.