

"Twenty years gone..."

After he finishes his story, Odysseus is given a ship and sent home by the _____. _____ disguises Odysseus as a _____. She then has him reveal himself to his son, _____ in order to plan _____ with the help of
_____. By referring to Odysseus as being _____ and _____ tells us his has learned how to be _____. Telemachus thinks his father is a _____ because _____. Odysseus convinces Telemachus he's _____ by
_____. After Telemachus finally believes him, Odysseus asks him to _____. Telemachus is concerned because _____ and _____ even though Odysseus tells him that both Zeus and Athena are on their side. Odysseus' plan is to have Telemachus _____ while he (Odysseus) _____ and warns Telemachus to not get angry if _____.
Then Telemachus is to _____, but leave _____ and finally _____.

Argus

This old dog is symbolizing _____ since both were left with no one to look after, both grew old, and untended. Odysseus again shows _____ when he _____. Eumaeus explains that when Odysseus was around _____ but because servants _____ they don't _____.

The Suitors

_____ reacts to Odysseus' old man look by _____.
Odysseus replies by saying _____. _____ gets upset and _____. Odysseus replies by _____.
_____ hears the hit and orders her maid to _____ because she thinks the old man may _____.

Penelope

Penelope asks the old beggar _____, _____, and _____. She replied that she feels _____. To waste time she _____ but at night she would _____.
For _____ years she did this until _____. Now she has no strength left to
_____.
The old beggar convinces Penelope _____.

The Challenge

Penelope finally agrees to choose a suitor, she says she'll marry the one to _____ through _____. All of the suitors except for _____ fail. Then _____ stood up with his sword drawn.

Odysseus' Revenge

_____ gets upset and _____. While doing this, the old beggar _____ and kills him. Other men become upset and look for _____ but can't find any. The old beggar reveals himself as _____. The suitors respond by saying that _____ and that they will _____, and _____ with _____. Odysseus rejects their offer and says they'll pay back _____. The first man to advance at Odysseus _____. The next man was _____ by Telemachus who then goes to get _____. With the help of _____ and other _____, Odysseus kills all the suitors. The epic simile made here compares _____ to _____.

Penelope's Test

The epic simile made here compares _____ from Athena to _____. Penelope still doesn't _____. So she _____ by telling _____ to move _____. Odysseus becomes _____ since he _____, lined up _____, built the _____ and _____, and gave it a _____. He also says that no one else can _____. Penelope then realizes _____ because _____.