

Classify the three different types of similarity theorems that we can use for triangles.

How do you know?