

Interpreting Text and Visuals

1. Name the four major language families in Europe. _____

In what part of Europe is each of the language families found? _____

2. To what major language family does English belong? _____

3. What part of Europe—eastern or western—has the greater number of languages in one language family? _____

To what family do most of these languages belong? _____

Name five of these languages. _____

4. What seems unusual about Romania being in the romance language family? _____

5. How might language help to divide people and prevent them from forming their own country? _____

Examine the map again. In what part of Europe might that have happened? _____

6. How might language unite people and help them to form their own country? _____

Examine the map again. In what part of Europe might that have happened? _____