

NASCAR RACES START AGAIN

A NASCAR Race

The next NASCAR race is on May 17. This race is at Darlington Raceway in South Carolina. NASCAR officials stopped having races for 10 weeks to help stop the spread of the coronavirus. Now NASCAR drivers will be competing at racetracks again, but races will be different for a while. No fans will be allowed in the stands now, but they can watch the races on TVs at home. Also, NASCAR races were usually just on weekends, but during the last two weeks of May, NASCAR will have races during the week too. NASCAR fans are excited to watch races again!
