

Michelle Kwan

Asian-Pacific American
Heritage Month

Michelle Kwan is a champion figure skater who has won top honors in national and global competitions, and has claimed two Olympic medals for the United States. She has been competing for over ten years, and is the most decorated figure skater in United States history. She is known as one of the country's most popular figure skaters and is often called one of the greatest figure skaters of all time by critics and fellow skaters.

