

NEW CRAYONS !

Colors of the World Crayons

The Crayola® company announced a new box of crayons with different skin tones on May 20! These crayons are called the Colors of the World. The crayons include 24 crayons in colors that represent skin tones around the world. Crayola said they want people to have crayon colors they can use to color pictures of themselves and feel included. The crayons will be in stores starting in July and will include colors such as Light Golden, Deep Almond and Medium Deep Rose. A box of 32 crayons will also be available, which will include the 24 new crayons plus four hair and four eye color crayons.
