

DISNEY WORLD TO OPEN

Walt Disney World

The Walt Disney World® amusement park in Orlando, Florida, made an exciting announcement on May 27! The amusement park announced it plans to reopen on July 11. The park has been closed since March 15 because of the coronavirus. At first, the park will limit the number of visitors to help with social distancing. Fireworks shows, character meet-and-greets and parades will not be happening to help with social distancing too. Everyone will be required to wear a face mask at the park. Other amusement parks have plans to reopen soon too. People are very excited that amusement parks are going to reopen!
