

REMEMBERING GEORGE FLOYD

People Standing Outside of a Memorial Service for George Floyd

People across the U.S. are attending memorial services to remember George Floyd. People are giving speeches about George at the services. George Floyd is an African American man who died on May 25 in Minneapolis, Minnesota. He died after a white police officer hurt him. The first memorial service was on June 4 in Minneapolis. Public and private services will be in Raeford, North Carolina, on June 6. George was born near Raeford. A public service will be in Houston, Texas, on June 8, followed by a private funeral on June 9. George grew up in Houston.

Photo Credit: Associated Press/Bebeto Matthews

Copyright © 2020 n2y, LLC. All rights reserved. News-2-You®

WHAT

REMEMBERING GEORGE FLOYD

People across the U.S. are remembering George Floyd.

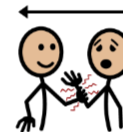

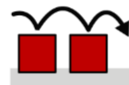

George Floyd died on May 25 in Minneapolis, Minnesota.

25

He died after a police officer hurt him.

People are remembering George at services.

People are giving speeches about George at the services.

The first service was June 4 in Minneapolis, Minnesota.

4
4

Another service will be June 6 in Raeford, North Carolina.

6
6

George was born near Raeford.

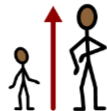

A funeral will be June 9 in Houston, Texas.

9
9

George grew up in Houston.

1. WHAT are people giving
at the services ?

tests

presents

speeches

2. WHO are people remembering at services ?

Jennifer
Hudson

Shaquille
O'Neal

George
Floyd

3. WHERE was the first service ?

Atlanta,
Georgia

Minneapolis,
Minnesota

Las Vegas,
Nevada

