

SESAME STREET TV SPECIAL

Some Sesame Street Characters

Sesame Street will have a one-hour TV special on CNN on June 6.*

This TV special is called Coming Together: Standing Up to Racism.

A CNN/Sesame Street Town Hall for Kids and Families. Many people have been protesting racism against African Americans. Racism is when people are not treated fairly because of the color of their skin. CNN news people and Sesame Street characters, including Big Bird, Abby Cadabby, Elmo and Rosita, will be on the TV special. During the TV special, adults and Sesame Street characters will answer questions from kids and parents. They will talk about racism, the recent protests and treating people fairly.

 Check your local TV listings for times.

Photo Credit: Shutterstock/Ritu Manoj Jethani

Copyright © 2020 n2y, LLC. All rights reserved. News-2-You®

WHAT

SESAME STREET TV SPECIAL

Sesame Street will have a TV special. *

This

TV special will be on

TV

June

6.

6

The TV special

is about treating people fairly.

Many people have been protesting.

They say some people are not fair to African Americans.

* This TV special is called Coming Together: Standing Up to Racism. A CNN/Sesame Street Town Hall for Kids and Families. Check your local TV listings for times.

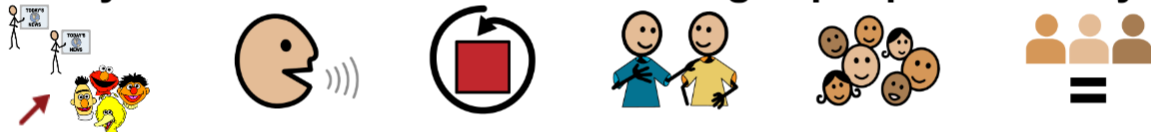

News people will be on the TV special.

Sesame Street characters will be on the TV special too.

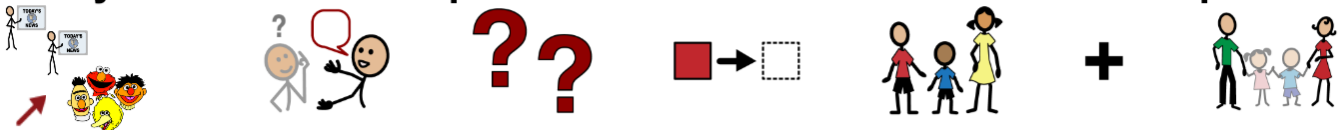

They will talk about treating people fairly.

They will talk about the protests.

They will answer questions from kids and parents.

1. WHAT will Sesame Street have on June 6 ?

TV special

movie

contest

2. WHAT will Sesame Street characters talk about ?

sports

protests

food

3. WHEN will the TV special be on TV ?

August

July

June

