

WHITE HOUSE TOURS

The White House

For many years, people have been able to go on tours of the White House in Washington, D.C. The White House is where the U.S. president lives and works. Tours of the White House stopped in March because of the coronavirus. Starting on September 12, the tours will start again. During the tours, people can see many rooms in the White House, including the Red Room, China Room and State Dining Room. Fewer people than before will be allowed on each tour. People must wear face masks and practice social distancing while on the tours. Many people are excited to tour the White House again!
