

COUNTRIES SIGN AGREEMENTS

President Trump Standing With Leaders From Other Countries

Three countries in the Middle East signed peace agreements on September 15. These countries are Israel, the United Arab Emirates and Bahrain. These countries agreed to work together in peace. The countries have had disagreements for many years. President Donald Trump and other U.S. government leaders helped the countries write the agreements. The agreements are called the Abraham Accords. Leaders from the Middle Eastern countries signed the agreements during a ceremony at the White House in Washington, D.C. People hope the agreements bring peace to the countries.
