

U.S. OPEN STARTS

A Professional Golfer

The U.S. Open started on September 17, in Mamaroneck, New York.

The U.S. Open is a big golf tournament for professional golfers. These big golf tournaments are called major championships. This year is the 120th U.S. Open. The U.S. Open is usually in June but was delayed because of the coronavirus. Professional golfers will play four rounds of golf over four days. The winner will be announced on the last day of the tournament, September 20. Fans are not allowed at the tournament, but they can watch on TV. Will you watch the U.S. Open?
